Plot refers to the sequence of events inside a story which affect other events through the principle of cause and effect. The causal events of a plot can be thought of as a series of sentences linked by the connector "and so". Plots can vary from simple structures—such as in a traditional ballad—to complex interwoven structures sometimes referred to by the term imbroglio.

Climax is a moment where the story's main Event happens, that makes it the most crucial scene. Story is written about the Event, thus Story = Event = Climax.; Climax is a moment when the protagonist achieves his Goal. That means that if you know the climax — you know the protagonist's goal, and vice versa.

Part XII The parts of Tragedy which must be treated as elements of the whole have been already mentioned. We now come to the quantitative parts- the separate parts into which Tragedy is divided- namely, Prologue, Episode, Exode, Choric song; this last being divided into Parode and Stasimon. These are common to all plays: peculiar to some are the songs of actors from the stage and the Commoi.
